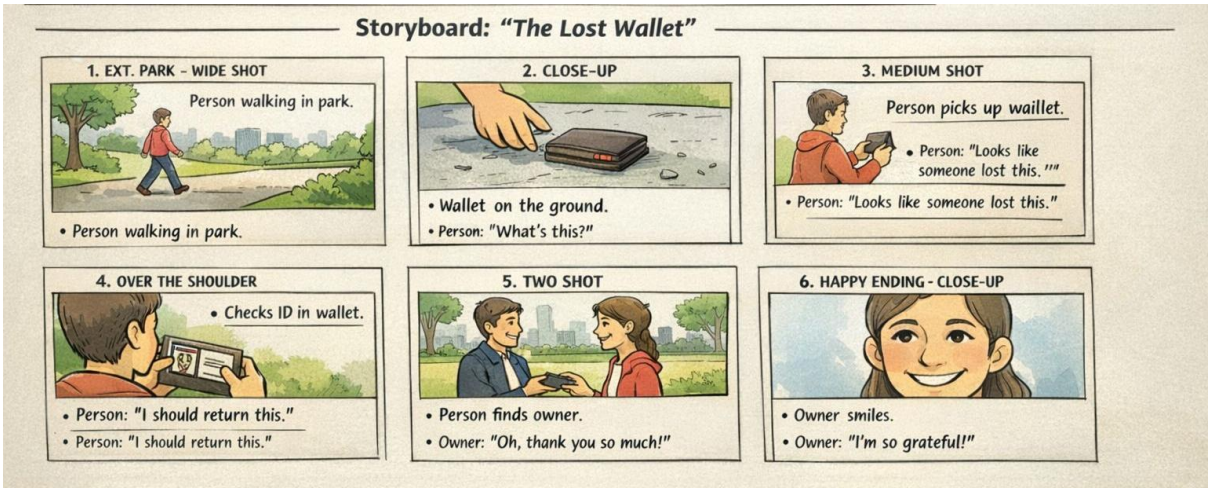
File Edit Select View Transport Tracks Generate Effect Analyze Tools Help
Share Audio
Audio 1
Mute Solo
Effects
Stereo, 44100Hz
32-bit float
Project Rate (Hz)
Snap-To
Start and End of Selection
44100
Off
00 h 00 m 00 s
Stopped.
Noise Reduction
Get Noise Profile
Noise reduction (dB): 12
Sensitivity: 6.00
Frequency smoothing (bands): 3
Noise: Reduce Residue
Preview
Cancel
OK
Amplify
Amplification (dB): 6.0
New Peak Amplitude (dB): 0.
Allow clipping
Audacity



Storyboard: "The Lost Wallet"
1. EXT. PARK - WIDE SHOT
Person walking in park.
• Person walking in park.
2. CLOSE-UP
• Wallet on the ground.
• Person: "What's this?"
3. MEDIUM SHOT
Person picks up waillet.
• Person: "Looks like someone lost this. ""
• Person: "Looks like someone lost this."
4. OVER THE SHOULDER
• Checks ID in wallet.
• Person: "I should return this."
• Person: "I should return this."
5. TWO SHOT
• Person finds owner.
• Owner: "Oh, thank you so much!"
6. HAPPY ENDING - CLOSE-UP
• Owner smiles.
• Owner: "I'm so grateful!"

JUMP CUT
Sudden transition between two shots of the same subject.
MATCH CUT
Transition between similar visual compositions
L-CUT
Audio from one scene continues into the next scene.

Pre-Production Planning for Video Production

Define the objective of the video project.

Identify the production team members and assign roles such as director, camera operator, editor, and actor.

Prepare a production schedule including recording time and location.

Create a list of equipment required (camera, microphone, tripod).

Select suitable locations for shooting.

Prepare a shot list describing each camera shot.

Document the pre-production plan in a structured format.